LIGATT Security International Files Civil and Criminal Charges Against Lakesha R. Wilson

ATLANTA, GA-LIGATT Security International (OTC: LGTT) files a civil and criminal complaint against former President and COO of LSI, Lakesha R. Wilson.

The lawsuit was filed in Fulton County, Georgia. It consists of a number of charges including theft, embezzlement, fraud, breach of confidentiality agreement, and slander.

“I am truly saddened that I have to file this lawsuit against my former employee,” says Gregory Evans, President and CEO of LIGATT Security International. “I am confident that all matters of this lawsuit will be resolved in its entirety and investors and consumers will have a better understanding of Ms. Wilson’s sudden departure from the company.”

Evans has posted a video blog discussing the lawsuit in more detail. The blog can be accessed at www.ligattsecurity.com/LakeshaRWilson.

LSI is a hi-tech security company that focuses on computer security and cyber-crime investigation. It is a publicly traded company whose mission is to be the nation’s leading provider of hi-tech crime investigations, by protecting their clients against Black Hat Hacking one CPU at a time.
